

KeyBank Risk Review Group Rotational Analyst Program

Turn to Key for a rewarding career opportunity.

As the internal audit function within KeyBank, the Risk Review Group (RRG) provides an independent assessment of Key's processes and risks. As a trusted advisor, the RRG tests the adequacy and effectiveness of KeyBank's risk management practices, makes recommendations for improvement, and monitors remediation efforts. The RRG is accountable to the KeyCorp Audit Committee and reporting is provided to key stakeholders, including the Board of Directors and associated committees, executive and line of business management, and KeyBank's regulators.

About the Rotational Analyst Program

The RRG Rotational Analyst Program spans 12-15 months. After several weeks of foundational training, you will gain hands-on experience working with various teams within the Risk Review Group on numerous audits and projects. You will also have the opportunity to network with the senior management of Key and other professionals in the Accounting, Risk Review, and Finance areas. Your rotations will include access to several of the 14 audit teams that support the bank. You may also choose to do one rotation through KeyBank's Finance department.

What does the program offer?

- 10-week foundational training in financial accounting, corporate finance theory, cash flow analysis, credit/risk analysis, business writing, business etiquette, advanced Excel,[®] and more
- Robust feedback and performance management
- Mentorships
- Exposure to and engagement with senior leadership
- Community involvement
- Team-building
- Executive Speaker Series
- Placement, upon successful completion of the program, based on business needs, demonstrated skill, your interests, and performance during the program

What are we looking for?

- Bachelor's or advanced degree in Accounting, Economics, Finance or Management Information Systems
- Outstanding academic achievement
- Strong accounting and financial acumen
- Strong analytical skills
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Relevant work or internship experience
